

2011 SCORE Awards A Celebration of Excellence of America's Small Businesses

The SCORE Awards—is a celebration of excellence in America's small businesses. The SCORE Awards is the pre-eminent distinction in honoring and supporting small business in the U.S., providing a celebration of the people and companies that have demonstrated unique vision, innovation and achievement in support of America's small businesses.

The SCORE Awards is an annual event – equal parts ceremony, celebration and entertainment. Net revenues from the event will go to support the SCORE Foundation and its programs, a 501(c)3 non profit, tax ID number 52-1962712.

The 2011 SCORE Awards program will be held Thursday, September 15, 2011, at The Ronald Reagan Building & International Trade Center in Washington, DC.

SCORE Awards Selection Process

- The SCORE Foundation's esteemed panel of judges will consider nominations received for each of the listed categories and has the discretion to consider nominations of their own recommendation.
- Selections are made based upon the comparison of data submitted against the description of each award.
- If, in the ruling of the review panel judges, no candidates or nominees meet the eligibility requirements or standards for a select award, an award may not be given.
- Only one award per year will be awarded in each category.
- Nominations of candidates not selected for the current year may resubmit in a subsequent year for consideration.
- Each final nominee selected in accordance with these procedures may be requested to provide additional information and must indicate a willingness to accept the award in-person at the September 15, 2011 presentation ceremony.

About SCORE and SCORE Foundation

SCORE , mentors to America's small business, is a non-profit association dedicated to educating entrepreneurs and the formation, growth and success of small business nationwide. The SCORE Awards are hosted by the SCORE Foundation, a 501(c)3 organization that helps to advance and accelerate the mission of SCORE. SCORE is headquartered in Herndon, VA and has 364 chapters throughout the United States and its territories, with 13,400 volunteers nationwide. Both working and retired executives, as well as, business owners donate time and expertise as business counselors. SCORE is America's premier source of free and confidential small business advice for entrepreneurs.

We invite your nomination of individuals and small businesses that exemplify dedication to the highest standards for the 2011 SCORE Awards.
